Schaeffer Cox
American Political Prisoner

Schaeffer Cox was a successful business man with a good family.

When Cox campaigned against the police trafficking drugs and the Office of Child services allowing sexual abuse of children in their care, the two ~~two~~ corrupt groups teamed up to get rid of this reformer.

First, the police paid local criminals to get close to Cox and urge him to commit crimes for which he could be prosecuted.

When that failed, they filed a bogus child neglect complaint against the Cox family, and started proceedings to forcibly take their children.

Knowing this was politically driven, Cox went to the military police on Ft. Wainwright for help.

The ^{MPS} informed Cox that US Marshals had bragged of their plan to kick in Cox's door under the pretense of taking his child and that Cox was to be killed in the process. This, they said, was how they could "fix the Schaeffer Cox problem."

The Military Police supplied the Cox family's lawyer with Affidavits to this effect.

While this was unfolding, the local criminals on the police pay-roll re-doubled their efforts to coerce Cox into committing a crime.

One such criminal, Bill Fulton, issued a death-threat-ultimatum, telling Cox he must get in a shoot-out with police or be shot by Fulton himself for "being a coward". These threats were recorded and are publicly available.

Fearing for their lives, the Cox family fled to Canada but were intercepted by police.

Cox was charged with conspiracy against the government and rail-rocketed through a show trial where he was not allowed to speak or present evidence in his defense. He was sentenced to 27 years in prison. He maintains his innocence.

He was then sent to a secret prison for political prisoners called The Communications Management Unit. Basically, he was "disappeared" in communist style.

Now he needs your help financially to expose this spunky corruption that has no place in a free country. Get some money to him so he can get his story to the world.
