↓ I can't talk about it in a monitored mail piece like this one, but a very good opportunity that I'd been hoping for came along. It's something key that could get me out within 8 months. But because Maria and her secret "Board" took the money and left me broke, this lucky break I just got is passing me by. People donated money to ME just for this sort of thing. Now I don't have it.

If, as Maria says, their AFL bylaws and tax structure etc. won't allow them to spend money to help me, then they have no business at all holding money that people gave for the sole purpose of helping me. That's pretty simple, right?

I asked people to give to me. And they gave. They didn't give to AFL. They didn't even know about AFL. I didn't even know about AFL until it was part of Maria's excuses about why my funds had disappeared.

Now I'm feeling the real life consequences of Maria and "The Board's" theft as I watch my opportunities for freedom pass me by because I don't have the money I need.

Maria is not sly enough to be good at telling lies. And she's not brave enough to be good at telling the truth. I can't even express how disappointed I am in her.

You need to try to find out who these secret Board members are and hound them. We need 5 things:

1. A full accounting, verified by Eberle, that includes who gave how much and when, so I can pay these people back the money Maria stole on my watch.

2. The VOID Limited Power of Attorney Maria refuses to surrender.

3. All the money that's left.

4. The donor list w/ all related data.

5. A full waiver of AFL's bogus claim to control the Eberle contract.

Maria and "The Board" are bullying Eberle to not talk to us or tell ME how much money people donated to ME. They all want to cover their theft.

How on Earth could I not have a right to know how much money donors gave to me? Try to squeeze Eberle to tell what the gross donations totalled, and how much money went to AFL all total. I need that info.

I know it was A LOT. I just filed a civil rights suit. The filing fee for that was $400. I may need to file a writ of mandamus to enforce an injunction against the CMU. This will be $550 to file. If I want to drag AFL into court and find out through subpoenas just how much they stole, this will cost $280 in filing fees plus $100 for each of the six people I have to serve through a process server. On top of this I lost a bunch of weight while on grocery restriction. Now I'm allowed to buy food again, but I'm doing without so I can keep important legal battles moving forward. Money on my commissary account is all that's saving me. Rudy, I just can't even tell you how much damage Maria and her secret Board are doing.

And as you know, I got another write up for "conducting business." At the disciplinary hearing the unit managers told me to give Maria and her secret Board full control of everything and I'll quit getting write ups. Hum? Fishy. Why does it have to be Maria and not someone else who's actually trustworthy?

There are several things that can be inferred from this. None of them are good. Please help me get Maria out of my life and out of my pocketbook.
