

So let me get this straight

A man is sentenced to 30 days in jail, is fined $16,000 and loses his 28 year career with a fortune 500 company, along with his family medical plan, because of a first time DUI charge. An incident in which there was no property damage or injury to any person. Yet Hillary Clinton jeopardizes national security, recklessly mishandles 100 top secret documents, lies to the public about the allegations and she is not even prosecuted. Yes it is possible that the driver could endanger the public while traveling the four blocks to his residence at 25 MPH, but Hillary probably exposed military, CIA personnel and foreign allies to endangerment with her flagrant disregard for national security. So a rich white lady escapes accountability for her actions. No wonder there are riots in the street about injustice.
