

President Trump
c/o Pardon Attorney
145 N street N.E.
Room 5E.508
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear President Trump,

We are writing to you on behalf of someone we are convinced is an innocent man in prison, and who we believe is deserving of a presidential pardon. His name is Schaeffer Cox. Schaeffer Cox is a well known 2nd Amendment lobbyist who had won 38% of the vote in a 3 way race in a 2008 Alaska State House election, which he narrowly lost. A successful businessman and leader in his community, he was known for his work in promoting the U.S. Constitution and Biblical principals upon which this country was founded.

Schaeffer Cox's grandfather, Luther Cox, is an Army Air Core veteran who became a Baptist pastor after serving his country during WWII as a pilot. Schaeffer Cox was home schooled by his father, Gary Cox, who, like his father before him, became a Baptist pastor after attending WestPoint. When he was arrested, Schaeffer Cox was carrying on the family tradition of morality and honor, raising two children of his own, and standing for what's right no matter the cost. Schaeffer Cox isn't in prison for doing bad things; he's in prison for telling powerful people not to.

Former US Attorney for Alaska, Karen Loeffler, built her identity around persecuting Christians and conservatives. In the closing argument to the jury, her team of prosecutors argued that Schaeffer Cox should be found guilty of conspiring against the government because "he doesn't believe in man's law, he believes in God's Law. Whatever that means!"

As pastors, we find this type of a prosecution deeply troubling. Schaeffer Cox isn't even accused of anything specific. The US Attorney just basically argued that because Schaeffer Cox had morals, he was the kind of guy who might stand up to an immoral government, some time far out in the future, if it ever came to that. This isn't a crime! In fact, we should all be that principled.

But if the 9th Circuit Court of appeals is given the chance to uphold this conviction, it will send an ominous and intimidating message to good, wholesome, God-fearing Americans all over the country. It will say loud and clear, "you better worship Czar, or else!"

What is being done to Schaeffer Cox is corrupt, evil, and un-American. These prosecutors are Democratic Party Operatives committing BRADY* violations and telling fantastic lies to push through a fringe legal theory that will allow them to arrest anyone they disagree with, Stalin style.

As employees of the Executive Branch of government, these prosecutors work for you, President Trump. They are using your name and your authority to commit crimes, pervert justice, corrupt the legal system, and bully Christians and whoever else they don't have a use for.

It's not up to the courts to make YOUR US Attorneys follow the rules (like BRADY), play fair, and not abuse their power. The US Attorneys work for the President, not themselves, and not anyone else. So it's within you power and authority as President to make them behave.

These prosecutors ignored the rules, hid evidence, made up wild accusations, didn't play fair, and abused their power. All to terrorize and persecute a law abiding American, Schaeffer Cox, and intimidate the rest of us. President Trump, it's your duty to stop this corruption. That's why we elected you.
