Dear Mom,

I hope you and Dad are having fun in Hawaii. Nothing makes me happier than to see everyone going on with life and making good memories.

I got your letters, cards, and pictures. The one about Seth wearing my old hat almost made me cry. So much has been lost to the thugs who overran our country. It's not unlike what the German security and intelligence community did to Germany in the 30s and 40s. I hate to see it. It's Detrich Bonhoffers story all over again. I'm just glad Seth and Bri are in a loving home where they can grow up surrounded by good people.

The write-up that got me thrown back in the CMU was expunged. They dismissed it. But then they just left me in here anyway. A staff member laughed and admitted that the whole write-up was made up just to put me back here. The people who run this unit are very unhealthy people. They're all fags and weidlos who have this slimy urge to bust up good wholesome families, of good wholesome people, with good wholesome values. They get this sick gleeful excitement when they push their backwards values on to normal decent people with the force of the state. They vandalize humanity.

They told me I'm not going to get to see my kids again. They want me to break down and squirm and kiss the ring and beg. They want to see righteousness grovel before their perversion and evil. I won't do it. I won't do it! They can throw me in the Hole, or four-point me, or do any of the other horrible stuff they do to people in the CMU. I'm not going to betray myself or my King. If I did that, I'd be "soul dead." I'd be nothing but an empty skin with no reason to live or get out or anything. This is their satanic game; they don't want to kill me, they want to get me to choose death.

Pray that God would be with me like He was for Daniel, Joseph, David, Noah, and Lot. This is the season I am in. I have to go through it.

They cut off my phone untill 2-18-17 and my email untill 3-18-17. There is a court order in effect telling them to NOT do this. But they just thumb their noses at the law, the Courts, and peoples rights.

Mom, it's like watching cult members self-destruct around here. They're all sex perverts, they're all big time prescription drug abusers, and they all have this out of control "I don't care! Burn it all to the ground" attitude. You know how celebrities who have all the money and houses and women and drugs and fame will go into those self-destruct tailspins and just trash it all and then overdose and die? That's what the top Feds are doing right now.

I'm watching it from the inside and it's jarring. The system has this thin paper skin that looks competent and professional and strong on the outside. But the core is going up in flames. As soon as those flames hit the outer skin that the people see, it will burn in a flash! The American people may not know what's burning, but they all smell smoke.

If I can get out of here I'll land on my feet and be able to take care of everyone. But until then, keep your passports current and stay prepared to dodge the fallout of the wildly irresponsible criminal jokers who are at the helm. People who are bold and well informed can acquire huge windfall fortunes during transitional chaos. But if you don't recognize the subtle indicators, you can loose your shirt, or your life.

I love you and miss the children. Make sure they know that I want to be calling them and visiting them, but the cops want let me. I'd hate for them to think I'm not calling because I don't want to talk to them.

Thanks for the pictures. I'll keep you posted on any changes in my circumstances.

Your firstborn son,

- Schreffter
