Donna has painted for HRH Princess Anne at a Royal Gala Dinner, where HRH commented on how much she enjoyed watching the transition of the painting as it came to life, and expressed her admiration for the finished artwork.

Donna captures significant events on canvas as a lifelong memory. She engages celebrities and guests to add to her paintings, bringing joy to so many through the aesthetic and participatory expression of art. Recent events Donna has painted at include the 55th opening of Queensland’s State Parliament, The Daniel Morcombe Dance for Daniel at City Hall where former Prime Minister, Tony Abbott and Premier Anastacia Palaszczuk added to the artwork. Donna also painted with Oprah’s audience members at Circular Quay, the 200 years of NSW Racing lunch, and was also engaged to paint at Hamilton Island, for the “best job in the world” campaign, where she painted with the 16 finalists, re-creating their journey of Queensland’s Great Barrier Reef and Islands.

Through her body of work, Donna has raised over half a million dollars for charity with her paintings fetching up to 30,000 each at auction. Donna's paintings are only available through commission or at an auction event, and not exhibited in any gallery which keeps her work exclusive.

Added Benefits

Once the painting has been created, the image can then be used as a marketing tool. A reminder of the unity of your event can be sent to key stakeholders by way of framed prints, and to a wider network, postcards with the completed painting on them. This also promotes goodwill amongst your clients. Probably the most astute marketing you can have. Other Merchandise available include coffee cups, mouse mats, wine bottle label, DVD Covers etc.

Donna enhances Corporate Entertainment

Donna invites guests in the Marquee to also add to the canvas, helping to create a very special memento of their Sporting hospitality.

The same clients are often invited to many different events under the Corporate Entertainment, hospitality banner. What Donna provides is a point of difference, through interactive entertainment for your clients. Giving them a positive creative experience they will remember. Not only capturing the atmosphere of the day, but also their goodwill!

Donna does her research to make sure that the end product, the painting, captures a significant moment in the particular event which is being painted.

How does it work?

Donna sets up her easel and canvas in the Marquee/hospitality area. Throughout the day, clients are invited to add to the canvas. They sign the back of the canvas.

The end result is a painting which becomes a significant piece of sporting memorabilia.
