

Baptism

Holy Baptism among Lutherans is regarded as “a means of grace” through which God gives eternal life in Christ and calls the newly baptized into life-long discipleship.

If you are considering a baptism at Immanuel, you are encouraged to contact the pastor directly as soon as possible.