PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

With care and compassion, we extend a helping hand.

Great news, the Nominating Committee has asked Cherie Williams to serve as President Elect and she accepted. Elsa Torgerson has accepted the position of Second Vice President in charge of Membership, and will be meeting with the new members on November 20.

At our October business meeting, Joan Doubrava, chair of the Donations Committee, presented the City Impact Center as a proposed project for the current club year. They serve the local community reaching seniors through a housing project, running an after school program for the children in our neighborhood, and a charter school for almost 400 students, grades 7-12. CIC is a 501©3, non-profit organization. For more information visit their website at www.cicnv.org.

Community Service Committee will host a luncheon on November 6 themed, Rally Around the Flag in honor of Veteran's Day. Come dressed in your red, white and blue and enjoy the display of armed services memorabilia that is connected to our members. If you have any memorabilia to add to the display contact Billie Kinney and let her know. Send your $25 donation to Nancy Zangl to our P.O. Box 95662 at Las Vegas, Nevada 89193. It will be a fun event so plan on coming and bring a friend. Knowing these cooks we will be treated to a very nice luncheon and to a special guest speaker, Colonel Ed Murphy (Retired). Social is at 11 am and the luncheon at noon.

The Evening Mesquite gals are busy planning for their annual Holiday Craft Auction on November 13. No meeting for the daytime Mesquite Club but a special evening of dinner, buffet style, drinks, raffles and a live auction. This will be their 31st annual Holiday Craft Auction. Door opens at 5:30. Hope to see you there! The proceeds will benefit Brandolyn's Gifts and the Evening Mesquite Scholarship Fund. It's always a big success so join in the fun. There is a $20 donation to attend. Let Judy Stebbins know you're planning on attending or send your money to Nancy Zangl.

On November 20, we will have a business meeting and a speaker. Paula Lawrence, Executive Director of Dress for Success will be our speaker. We have long been a contributor to this worthy community project. Come and find out the behind the scene details and how they disperse their clothing.

Fondly, Johanna

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT; BIRTHDAYS; WINE AND TREE FESTIVAL

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

June Eckenroth, a 33 year member of Mesquite Club, was club President 1989-1990 and has served as our ever-faithful Devotions Chair for all but three years of her membership. We all know her closing remark as "And all God's children say Amen".

Raised in Eastern Pennsylvanian (near Hershey), she loved family summers at the Delaware beach. In high school she tooted her clarinet in the band and was editor of the school newspaper. Onward, she graduated from Business College and then worked as a legal secretary.

Married to Herb for 65 years, they were transferred to over six U.S. cities as he followed his career as a FBI Special Agent. They have two daughters. June is a Founder and Elder of the Mt. View Presbyterian Church in Summerlin, where she is an accomplished member of the Bell Ringers Group. For fun she regularly plays bridge and pan and watches football. This delightful lady's motto is "Enjoy Life" and that she does! June tributes her joining Mesquite Club, 33 years ago, to the beginning of her feeling at home and part of our Las Vegas community.

EVENING: CHAIR LETTER

Dear Members,

I can't believe another month has come and gone. A lot of good things have happened to the Evening Mesquite during that month. We have two new members: Susan Palermo sponsored by Ruth Larson and Anita Carothers sponsored by Saroj Dhodapkar. We are excited they have joined our great group of women. Please introduce yourself to them.

Toby Power delivered two large boxes of school supplies to City Impact Center. Thanks to all the members and friends of Evening Mesquite who donated the supplies. The supply bin is ready to receive more donations! At our September 29 meeting, Vic Caruso from City Impact Center was our speaker. His dynamic talk about the Center energized all of us to do great things for our chosen community project. Several members have committed to working at the Center on Tuesdays at the after school program from 4pm to 6pm. Toby and Bonnie C. did a fantastic job bringing this opportunity for our members to do hands on service. Our historian, Maureen Nolen, shared an amusing snippet of Mesquite Club history. She will enlighten us at each of our meetings.

We had the pleasure of hosting Toby Kahan, the President Elect of GFWC-California, and her friend Sally. Both commented positively on all the projects the Evening group was managing. They each left us with a small gift bag which included a Mesquite Club Cookbook and a GFWC-Nevada state pin.

On October 1, Connie Macauley, Ruth Larson, Jane Reid, and I delivered 70 pillow cases to UMC Children's Hospital. For the first time we were allowed to hand out the cases to the children with the help of hospital staff. The project started last year with club members buying, cutting and sewing fabric into colorful pillowcases.

On October 6, Ways and Means Fantasy Football Bunco was a huge success. Over 40 people, many in team colors, played Bunco, laughed, ate, and had a good time. At half time we had three "cheerleaders" compete for first place. Subhas Dhodapkar, husband of Evening member Saroj, walked away with first prize! Marilyn Freeman and Karen Zielger were runners-up. A big "cheer" of appreciation to Judy Stebbins, Ruth Larson, and all the members who came early and stayed late to make the evening a success for Ways and Means.

October 13, the Holiday Craft Auction (HCA) committee met. Things are moving along. We have had a tremendous amount of donations from the community. Reminder-Don't forget your handmade craft or a special find for the auction. FYI-All the ornaments have been sold! Ways and Means will get a portion of the proceeds. We are contemplating ordering more, but only if we have enough orders. So if you want to order ornaments, see Toby at the October 20 meeting, or email me.

Mark your calendars:

November 3, 6 pm-HCA Work Meeting at the Clubhouse.

November 10, 6 pm-HCA setup at the Clubhouse.

Friday, November 13, 5:30 pm-31st ANNUAL HOLIDAY CRAFT AUCTION to benefit Evening Scholarship Program and Brandolyn's Gift at the Clubhouse

December 8-Holiday Party! More information will be coming.

We have a lot going on and all of it is important. I want to thank each member for everything they do to make this club year successful.
